

Agawam Historical ASSOCIATION

BECOME A PART OF HISTORY

The Agawam Historical Association is a private, non-profit organization working to preserve historic materials, documents, and landmarks pertaining to the Town of Agawam and to provide education opportunities concerning Agawam's history.

The association owns the c.1757 Thomas Smith House at 251 North West Street in Feeding Hills and operates the Agawam Historical & Fire House Museum at 35 Elm Street in Agawam. The Smith House is preserved in largely original, unrestored condition – a time capsule of 18th and 19th century life – and its newly preserved 1920s garage bridges the property's agricultural and suburban past. The fire house museum occupies the town's former Elm Street Fire Station and houses documents and artifacts pertaining to the history of the town and the Agawam Fire Department.

The association presents informative programs on a quarterly basis, and the Smith House and fire house museum are open several times during the spring, summer and fall. Association meetings are open to the public and all are welcome. There is no residency requirement for membership. The Agawam Historical Association is a strictly volunteer organization; your dues and active participation are essential to our efforts to preserve Agawam's past for future generations. We thank you for your interest and look forward to meeting you! Visit agawamhistoricalasoc.webs.com and follow us on Facebook.
